Re: Mena v. City of New York, et al., No. 1:15-cv-03707-ALC-SLC: Joint Application for Additional Time to Complete Depositions

Dear Magistrate Judge Cave:

On March 23, 2020, the Court ordered a 30-day stay of all depositions in the above-referenced case. Dkt. 109. The Court noted that “[b]y May 17, 2020, the parties may file a joint application for additional time to complete depositions, if needed.” Id.

Given the current circumstances caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the parties jointly request that the stay of all depositions be extended until New York State’s “stay-at-home” order is lifted. See e.g., N.Y. Exec. Order No. 202.18 (extending restrictions until May 15, 2020). At that point, the parties request 45 days to complete the six depositions the Court has granted. Dkts. 95, 109.

Respectfully submitted,

Attorney for Defendants

The parties' joint request to stay all depositions in this case until New York State's "stay-at-home" order is lifted (ECF No. 110) is DENIED. The parties are directed to complete all depositions in this case by Wednesday, July 1, 2020. The Clerk of Court is directed to close ECF No. 110.

SO-ORDERED 4/29/2020

United States Magistrate Judge
